

BOOK TALK

MEET DANISH AUTHOR ANNA ECKHOFF

It's never too late to live your dream

She is the mother of six and the grandmother of fourteen. At the age of fifty-six, she swapped her career as an IT manager to work as the head of administration in Afghanistan and the Middle East. She returned to Denmark at the age of seventy-one. The book is Anna's personal account of daring to go after your dreams, despite those around you shaking their heads in disapproval, and about the inner development she experienced living and working on the frontlines.
